

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The more sources of information the public has access to the greater a chance that they will be able to make up their own minds on issues. An informed thinking public is one of the cornerstones of our country. A diverse press is a free press.